

Membership

The membership of the Hong Kong Subsidized Secondary Schools Council HKSSSC (hereinafter referred to as "the Council") is open to all subsidized secondary schools in Hong Kong. In 2010-2011 school year, 348 subsidized secondary schools represented by principals or acting principals have registered as member schools of the Council on payment of an annual subscription as approved by the Executive Committee, representing 70% of all about 500 secondary schools of various types (including government schools, grant schools, direct subsidy and private schools, etc.) in the territory.

Status

The Council is an association of subsidized secondary schools registered under the Societies Ordinance of the HKSAR Government as a non-profit making professional body. As its membership comprises all subsidized secondary schools, the Council is the largest and the most influential educational organization in the local secondary education sector. In this context, the Council often plays a major consultative role on educational issues in the education authority as well as in various statutory educational organizations in Hong Kong. Apart from holding membership on numerous advisory committees under the government, the Council also holds ex-officio membership in the Court of the University of Hong Kong.

Objects

The objects of HKSSSC are as follows:

- To provide and advance the cause of Education in Hong Kong.
- To promote and protect the rights and independence of all subsidized secondary schools in Hong Kong. (hereinafter referred as "the member schools")
- To promote and enhance the welfare and interest of the staff and students in the member schools.
- To provide a representative body for all member schools.
- To act as a liaison for member schools with the government and other bodies.
- To assert the Council's corporate opinions on education policies and to render services in respect thereof when necessary.

Executive Committee

The Executive Committee consists of 14 members: the immediate past chairman is an ex-officio while the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Hon. Secretary, two Assistant Hon. Secretaries, Hon. Treasurer and seven Area Representatives are elected from amongst the principals of all registered member schools at the Annual General Meeting on the basis of one-school-one vote. The term of office of all Executive Committee members is two years. Three additional members may be co-opted by the Executive Committee for a term of two years.
